

This Constitution dated 25 October 2022, shall supersede all others.

Fort Riley Spouses Club Constitution

Article I: Name and Authority

Section 1- The name of this organization shall be the Fort Riley Spouses Club. It shall hereafter be referred to as the FRSC.

Section 2- The FRSC is a private organization under the provision of AR 210-22 (Private Organizations on the Department of the Army Installations, effective November 2001) and shall operate on the Fort Riley military installation, with the requirements and conditions of all Army regulations and at the discretion and written consent of the Garrison Commander. The FRSC is not an instrument of the US Government.

Article II: Purpose

Section 1- The purpose of the FRSC shall be to bring together members of like interest in order that they may be afforded greater opportunity for charitable works, sociability, and have the opportunity to volunteer support for fundraising activities and projects. The FRSC may promote or sponsor and donate to other non-profit organizations to further the advancement of the quality of life for military families and the surrounding Fort Riley community. Members shall also be afforded an opportunity to assist in the disbursement of donations through the Community Assistance Fund.

Section 2- This organization does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof and is organized for non-profit purposes. This organization is organized for charitable purposes under Section 501 I (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section 3- The FRSC fully supports the United States Army's and Fort Riley's policies on equal opportunity and will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sexual orientation or gender, nor will it knowingly support or associate with persons or organizations which do. No activities conducted by the FRSC will seek to deprive individuals of their civil rights or prejudices or discredit the military service or any other agency or official of the United States Government. The FRSC will neither propagate extremist activities nor advocate violence against others or the violent overthrow of the Government.

Article III: Membership

Section 1- General Membership:

- A. Pursuant to Paragraph 3-7 of Army Regulation 210-22, membership will not be discriminatory based on race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation or national origin.
- B. Membership will be voluntary and will become effective upon payment of dues. The yearly dues will be determined by the Governing Board each year. The FRSC operates under a tiered dues system for military spouses with the following categories: spouses of rank E7 & above and spouses of rank E6 & below. Beginning 01 January, all dues will prorate to half of the annual cost. The board year runs 01 June through 31 May.
- C. Membership shall consist of Active and Associate members as defined herein.
- D. Members are encouraged to read the Constitution and Bylaws as a condition of informed consent.

- E. Members are personally liable for all debts of the association in the event of bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution and will follow all state and jurisdictional laws.
- F. Any FRSC member in good standing may attend a Governing Board meeting.

Section 2- Standing:

A member in good standing is one who has paid the appropriate dues, incurred no outstanding FRSC debts and is in compliance with the current Constitution and Bylaws, policies, and procedures of the FRSC.

Section 3- Active Membership:

Active membership will entitle the individual to the right to vote, the right to hold an elected office, and the right to receive appointments to committees. Active members must renew their membership and pay dues annually. Active Membership will be extended to the following:

- A. Spouses of Active Duty personnel.
- B. Spouses of Retired Military personnel.
- C. Spouses of Reservists and National Guard.
- D. Spouses of deceased military who have not remarried.
- E. Spouses of DoD-employed civilians.
- F. Spouses of International service members residing in the greater Fort Riley community.

Section 4-Associate Membership:

Associate members will pay annual dues, may vote and may hold an appointed position. Associate membership will entitle the individual to all rights and privileges of Active Membership excluding the right to hold an elected office. Associate Membership will be extended to the following:

- A. Local community members not eligible for Active Membership.
- B. Spouses of Retired Military personnel.
- C. Spouses of Reservists and National Guard.
- D. Spouses of deceased military who have not remarried.
- E. Soldiers

Section 5- Special Considerations:

- A. Guests are welcome to attend an FRSC function. However, persons eligible for membership may attend only one function (i.e., meeting, member mingle, sub-club, member welcome, etc.) without joining. Persons not eligible for membership may attend FRSC functions as a guest provided the function is not designated as "members only". In the interest of community relations, the Honorary President(s), Senior Advisor(s) and/or President may issue invitations for special occasions to members of the local communities.
- B. Membership and participation in the FRSC may be extended to individuals not covered in the category above. These individuals will be considered "Special Members." Acceptance is subject to the review and discretion of the Executive Board. Special Members are required to pay dues and are eligible to vote. However, they are not eligible to hold elected or appointed positions. Examples are: Lady Troopers, Manhattan Mavens, and other non-profit organizations.

Article IV: Officers

The board will consist of the Elected Officers, Honorary President(s), Senior Advisor, Parliamentarian and Appointed Chairs. They shall be the governing body of the organization. The board will carry out the purpose and objectives of the FRSC in accordance with the approved Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 1- Elected Officers:

- A. Only spouses of active duty Army service members may serve on the Executive Board.
- B. Elected officers of FRSC shall be: President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Third Vice President (Communications), Secretary, and Treasurer.
- C. Elected officers will serve for one board year upon their installation at the May General Membership meeting, or from the time of election or appointment and through the remainder of the current board year.
 - 1. The board year will run from 01 June to 31 May of each year.
 - 2. Upon payment of dues, spouses of active duty Army service members (whose spouse is stationed at Fort Riley at the time of election, or is currently on orders to Fort Riley, and have paid dues for the upcoming year in which they will serve), have the right to hold an Executive Board position.

Section 2- Governing Board:

- A. The Governing Board of the FRSC shall consist of the Advisor, Honorary President(s), Elected Officers, Parliamentarian, and the Appointed Chairs.
 - 1. The Appointed Chairs shall be those positions specified in the FRSC Bylaws and any additional committees as deemed necessary by the President.
 - 2. Appointed Chairs will serve for a term of one year or until the end of the current board year.
- B. Upon payment of dues, any member can serve as the Parliamentarian or a member of the Governing Board. They shall be appointed by the President, after conferring with the Advisor and/or the Honorary President(s) and a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section 3- Honorary President(s):

The spouse of the Commanding General and the Division Command Sergeant Major shall be asked to be the Honorary Presidents of the FRSC. If spouse is unavailable, the spouse of the senior Deputy Commanding General shall be asked to hold this position.

Section 4- Advisor:

The Advisor shall be appointed by the Honorary President(s). The appointment is for the term of one board year.

Section 5- The Executive Board will consist of 1st, 2nd and 3rd Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Community Outreach and Parliamentarian. If the office of President is vacated at any time, the First Vice President will fill this position. In the event the First Vice President is unable to fill the position or declines, a nominee will be selected by the Executive Board, approved by the Governing Board, and elected by the general membership.

Section 6- Nominations, elections and terms of the office are outlined in Article V of the Constitution. Duties are as outlined in the Bylaws.

Section 7- The FRSC Executive and Governing Boards, excluding the Advisor, will abide by the following term limits and conditions:

- A. A board member may only hold the same board position for two (2) consecutive years, after which he/she must have at least a one-year break before returning to that position.
- B. A board member may not serve on the board in any capacity more than three (3) consecutive years, after which he/she must have at least a one-year break before returning to any board position.
- C. No member shall hold more than one (1) Governing Board position at a time unless approved by the Executive Board while the search to fill the position continues.
- D. The Executive Board may vote to make exceptions to these rules on a case-by-case basis.

Article V: Elections

Section 1- In December, announce at the general membership meeting and in the newsletter that nominations will be accepted for elected officers beginning in January.

Section 2- All nominees will notify the Parliamentarian of their interest and will be e-mailed a copy of the Constitution and Bylaws (C&BL), with full disclosure of the position desired.

Section 3- The nominating committee shall meet no later than four weeks prior to the election to compile the slate of elected officers.

Section 4- The nominating committee will be chaired by the Parliamentarian and consist of the Honorary President(s) or Senior Advisor, and three (3) general members in good standing. The committee may wish to include Executive Board Members if they do not have a conflict of interest.

Section 5- At the March general membership meeting, the Parliamentarian shall announce the slate of elected officers. After which, nominations from the floor will be accepted. No nominations shall be accepted unless seconded by the nominee, in person or in writing prior to meeting. In lieu of a March meeting, the slate can be emailed to general members or published in the newsletter. Nominations accepted via email until March 31. All nominees shall be current members in good standing as defined in Art. III, section 2 of the Constitution. Bios of all nominees will be posted in the April newsletter and on social media.

Section 6- Voting will take place at the April general membership meeting. If there is only one (1) nominee per position, voting shall be by acclamation. If two (2) or more nominees are slated for one position, voting shall be by secret ballot. The candidate with majority votes cast for that office shall be elected. All active FRSC members in good standing and all Governing Board members (Parliamentarian excluded), have the right to vote.

Section 7- The elected officers will be installed at the May general membership meeting. Each officer shall serve one year commencing on 1 June. No elected officer shall serve more than two (2) consecutive terms in the same office.

Section 8- If an elected position remains unfilled, the incoming President, with majority vote of the incoming Executive Board, will appoint a member in good standing to fill the vacant position. This appointment will be assumed immediately and will be presented to the General Membership at the next scheduled meeting.

Section 9- Governing Board members have the right to resign at any time throughout the FRSC year or can be asked to resign upon continued failure of his/her duties as described in Art. II, sec. 2 and 3 of the bylaws.

Section 10- In the event an elected office becomes vacant, the President, with majority vote of the Executive Board, will appoint an active member in good standing to fill the position. This appointment will be assumed immediately and will be presented to the General Membership at the next scheduled meeting.

Section 11- If the office of the President is vacated at any time, the 1st Vice President will fill this position. In the event the 1st Vice President is unable to do so, the 2nd Vice President will fill the position.

Article VI: Administration

Section-1 - FRSC shall be a private organization authorized to operate in accordance with the Department of Defense regulations and with the written permission of the Garrison Commander, Fort Riley or his/her representative. In case of any omission or conflict between this Constitution and the Department of Defense or other pertinent directives, the latter shall govern.

Section-2 - This Constitution shall supersede all previous written Constitutions of FRSC. A copy of this Constitution, and any amendments, shall be provided to the approving authority of this private organization. The Constitution shall govern nominations, membership, elections, meetings, quorums & voting, adoptions & amendments, financial management & insurance, volunteer reporting and After Action Reports.

Section-3 - The Board shall consist of the Elected Officers, Honorary President(s), Senior Advisor, Parliamentarian, and all appointed Chairpersons. All these mentioned positions make up the Governing Board. Elected Officers and appointed Chairpersons shall be voting members of the Board with each position having one vote. The President may only vote in the case of a tie. The Parliamentarian is a non-voting member. The Advisor and Honorary President(s) vote only at general membership meetings. If a Chair position is co-chaired, the position shall only have one vote.

Section-4 - Bylaws include but are not limited to the duties and responsibilities of the Executive Board, Governing Board, Honorary President(s) and Advisor. A two-thirds majority vote of Governing Board members constitutes authority for revisions of Bylaws.

Section-5 - This Constitution shall be adopted at an FRSC General Membership meeting or by electronic means within the guidelines of Article XII of this Constitution.

Article VII: Meetings

Section-1 - The General Membership meetings, to include meetings and/or social events, shall be held once a month from August through May. Any of the meetings and/or events may be changed, cancelled, or combined when deemed advisable by the Executive Board. Other business meetings may be called at the discretion of the President. Organizational business that requires action by the members may be conducted at any of these meetings.

Section–2 - The Governing Board shall meet monthly unless otherwise announced by the President. The Executive Board may meet outside the Governing Board meetings at the discretion of the President, Honorary President(s) and/or Advisor.

Section–3 - A quorum, whether at regular or special meetings or electronic vote for the Governing Board, shall be two-thirds of the Voting Board.

Section–4 - The voting body for General Membership business shall be defined as all voting members present at the General Membership meeting. A quorum of two-thirds of those present is needed to pass proposed business. If voting occurs electronically, two-thirds of those who respond by the deadline provided will be considered a quorum.

Section–5 - Except as stated otherwise in the FRSC Constitution and Bylaws, all meetings will be conducted according to the current Robert’s Rules of Order (Revised Edition). The President will have the final authority to decide points of order.

Section–6 - Attendance of children:

At any Board and/or General Membership meeting, it is recommended that parents of children 9 months and older utilize child care, unless otherwise specified.

Article VIII: Finances

Section–1 - The revenue needed to pursue the objective described in Article II and the financial needs of the club shall be derived from:
